

09//10

Look Who's Coming to the JCCSF

TAUBE-KORET CENTER FOR JEWISH PEOPLEHOOD

Fame, Oblivion and the Writing Life

With Steven J. Zipperstein and Richard Rodriguez

THURSDAY, MARCH 11 • 8:00 PM

Award-winning Stanford historian, Steven J. Zipperstein joins essayist Richard Rodriguez, author of the acclaimed The Hunger of Memory, to discuss what it feels like to succeed and to fail as a writer. Zipperstein's latest book, Rosenfeld's Lives is a probing study of the now little-known, once celebrated novelist and essayist, Isaac Rosenfeld who, until his sudden death in his thirties in 1956, was considered by some a better writer than his best friend and rival from childhood, Saul Bellow. Hear this fascinating and cautionary tale about how character, talent, and luck weigh in the mysterious balance that tips a writer toward fame or failure.

Presented in partnership with the Taube Center for Jewish Studies at Stanford University.

Order tickets today at 415.292.1233 or www.jccsf.org/arts

MEMBERS $15 • PUBLIC $18 • STUDENTS $10

Jewish Community Center of San Francisco

3200 California Street, San Francisco, CA 94118 • 415.292.1200 • www.jccsf.org

09//10

Look Who's Coming to the JCCSF

TAUBE-KORET CENTER FOR JEWISH PEOPLEHOOD

Fame, Oblivion and the Writing Life

With Steven J. Zipperstein and Richard Rodriguez

THURSDAY, MARCH 11 • 8:00 PM

Award-winning Stanford historian, Steven J. Zipperstein joins essayist Richard Rodriguez, author of the acclaimed The Hunger of Memory, to discuss what it feels like to succeed and to fail as a writer. Zipperstein's latest book, Rosenfeld's Lives is a probing study of the now little-known, once celebrated novelist and essayist, Isaac Rosenfeld who, until his sudden death in his thirties in 1956, was considered by some a better writer than his best friend and rival from childhood, Saul Bellow. Hear this fascinating and cautionary tale about how character, talent, and luck weigh in the mysterious balance that tips a writer toward fame or failure.

Presented in partnership with the Taube Center for Jewish Studies at Stanford University.

Order tickets today at 415.292.1233 or www.jccsf.org/arts

MEMBERS $15 • PUBLIC $18 • STUDENTS $10

Jewish Community Center of San Francisco

3200 California Street, San Francisco, CA 94118 • 415.292.1200 • www.jccsf.org